DETAILED ACTION

This action is in response to an amendment filed on September 29, 2009. There are eight claims pending and eight claims under consideration. Claims 8 and 10 have been cancelled. This is the second action on the merits.

Withdrawn Rejections/Objections

Applicant is notified that any outstanding rejection/objection that is not expressly maintained in this office action has been withdrawn or rendered moot in view of applicant's amendments and/or remarks.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim 6 is provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory anticipatory-type double patenting as being unpatentable over Claim 1 of U.S. Patent Application No. 11/965,486 and Claim 10 of U.S. Patent Application No. 12/121,228. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because Claim 1 of U.S. Patent Application No. 11/965,486 and Claim 10 of U.S. Patent Application No. 12/121,228 teach species of the Formula II in the instant Claim 6.

Claim 6 of the current application teaches a compound of Formula II:

Claim 1 and claim 10 of the copending applications teaches species of Formula II where the PG ("protecting group") variable is a hydrogen. As the specification does not define or limit what groups may act as a "protecting group" and one skilled in the art can envision instances where the hydrogen would protect the nitrogen from engaging in a chemical reaction, hydrogen qualifies as a protecting group without further clarification or a definition.

The instant claim differs from the copending claim by a more limited genus than the claim of the copending application. However, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to select any of the species of the genus of the copending application, including those instantly claimed, because the skilled chemist would have the reasonable expectation that any of the species of the genus would have similar properties and, thus, the same use as taught for the genus as a whole. One of ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to select the claimed compounds from the genus of the copending application since such compounds would have been suggested by the claims of the copending application. It has been held that a prior art disclosed genus of useful compounds is sufficient to render prima facie obvious a species falling within a genus. In re Susi, 440 F.2d 442, 169 USPQ 423, 425 (CCPA 1971), followed by the Federal Circuit in Merck & Co. v. Biocraft Laboratories, 847 F.2d 804, 10 USPQ 2d 1843, 1846 (Fed. Cir. 1989).

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-5, 7 and 9 are allowed.

Claims 1-5, 7 and 9 are free of the prior art. The closest prior art to these claims is Willis, et. al., WO2001025242, which also teaches a process on how to synthesize thiazolopyrimidinones, however, the prior art teaches a method using a compound with a leaving group in the 2-position, not the 7-position.

Conclusion

Claim 6 is rejected.
